

Nakheel to award key water contracts

Dubai: Sat, 14 Jun 2008

Property developer Nakheel is set to award contracts for two water desalination and wastewater treatment projects to serve its Waterfront development in Dubai, said a magazine report.

Each plant will be having a desalination capacity of 55,000 cubic metres a day, said the London-based Meed magazine, without giving a source.